AUDACITY

level quartet to ever qualify for participation in the regular International Quartet Contest, a feat they had the nerve to repeat in 2009. As if this were not bold enough, the quartet had the audacity to become the 2009 International Seniors' Quartet Champions the first year in which they qualified to participate in this event. Audiences should be forewarned that these fellows are not as they appear. They have been known to bring listeners to their feet while stirring their emotions to new levels, which they did at the 2009 Far Western District Quartet Contest. This daring act resulted in their being selected to receive the "Standing Ovation" award which is presented annually to the most entertaining quartet in the contest.

To most people, the members of Audacity do not appear to be audacious. They are four ordinary guys who lead rather normal lives. That all changed, however, when they formed their quartet in early 2007. Pictured from left to right are John Fynmore, tenor, Byron Bennett, lead, Greg Dodge, bass, and Fraser Brown, baritone. With seeming disregard for precedent, in 2008 Audacity became the first Senior

VOCAL EDITION

Vocal Edition Barbershop Quartet was formed in March of 2011. One month later we won the Barbershop Harmony Society's AZ Division contest! We have over 75 years of Barbershop singing experience between us. We LOVE to entertain our audiences, and have received enthusiastic standing ovations from them. Members of Vocal Edition are: Eric Bjornsen (tenor), Tim McMullan (Lead), Danny Ryan (Baritone), Dan Davenport (Bass).
